

Citizens Advisory Committee Roster
Updated July 26, 2019

First Name	Last Name	City	Selected Background
Morgan	Aitken-Young	Redwood City	Business Development Manager at Hewlett Packard Enterprise. Worked as an intern for Committee for Green Foothills, is a member of Elks Club, and on the Alumni Board at Sacred Heart Prep. Has extensive nonprofit and volunteer experience.
Diane	Bailey	Belmont	Director of Menlo Spark. Deep professional experience in environmental advocacy, environmental justice, and climate policy. Committed PCE champion from formation.
Steven	Booker	Half Moon Bay	Political Director and Community Affairs Liaison with IBEW 617. Has experience working with SMC city councils. Also helps young people in high school and Adult continuation schools find construction industry opportunities. Was an electrician for 20+ years and worked with Building Management Systems to reduce energy consumption.
Allen	Brown	Unincorporated - Montara	Solar Consultant with Intraspark Consulting Services. Resident of San Mateo County for 30+ years. Over 15 years of experience with solar and energy efficiency program management. Has experience helping local schools with solar projects (530 kW at Burlingame School District and 2 MW at Sequoia Union High School District). Studied solar engineering at Stanford University.
Michael	Closson	Menlo Park	Advocated for CCA in San Mateo County through Sierra Club, San Mateo Community Choice, and Menlo Spark. Served on original PCE CAC. Former ED of Acterra, developed Green@Home residential energy efficiency program.
Janet	Creech	Millbrae	Deeply involved in PCE outreach and political support through San Mateo Community Choice and Sierra Club. Former PCE CAC member. Appointed member of Millbrae Community Enhancement Committee. Former science teacher.
Gladwyn	D'Souza	Belmont	Deeply involved in PCE outreach and political support through San Mateo Community Choice and Sierra Club. Professional background as electrical engineer, certificate in smart grids.
Joe	Fullerton	Half Moon Bay	Energy and Sustainability Manager, San Mateo Community College District, installed major solar, battery storage, and EV charging systems. Experience in green building, utility rates, demand reduction, on-bill financing.
Scott	Harmon	Portola Valley	Deeply involved in sustainability in youth and family outreach through Boy Scouts. Professional focus on energy efficiency lighting solutions for municipal accounts.
Ray	Larios	Burlingame	Renewable Energy Consultant, worked with SFO, ABAG, CPUC, environmental NGOs, Stanford, and Alcatraz Island on energy efficiency, renewables, microgrid.

Janelle	London	Menlo Park	Active PCE outreach volunteer. Chair of Menlo Park Environmental Quality Commission, Technical Advisory Committee for Peninsula Advanced Energy Community CEC grant. Experience in designing grassroots legislative advocacy campaigns.
Walter	Melville	San Bruno	Retired Electrician and Electrical Engineer with City of San Francisco and SFPUC. Former member IBEW Local #6. Former member of Sierra Club Loma Prieta Chapter Executive Board.
Jason	Mendelson	Redwood City	Active in developing Woodside's Climate Action plan and city sustainability ordinances, organizing Earth Day celebrations in Portola Valley/Woodside, owns TV and film production studio.
James	Ruigomez	San Bruno	Business Manager for San Mateo Building Trades Council, representing 26 local construction unions. Member of former PCE CAC. Active as volunteer coach in San Bruno youth sports.
Desiree	Thayer	Burlingame	Co-lead on Burlingame Citizens Environmental Council project to promote ECO100 opt-ups locally. Volunteered on PCE business outreach. Extensive outreach and legislative volunteer experience through Oxfam.